

US I.4b Cultural Interactions: Cooperation and Conflict

Conflict

Cooperation

Cultural Interaction

Teaching tips:

- Fold a piece of colorful paper in  $\frac{1}{2}$  (hot dog fold) and in  $\frac{1}{2}$  again (hamburger fold)
- Cut the inside center crease and fold so the cut side is inside and it makes a booklet
- Glue Cultural Interaction on the front as a title
- Glue "Conflict " on one "flap"
- Glue "Cooperation" on the other "flap"
- Have students write or draw details inside about ways in which the explorers cooperated with the American Indians, and ways in which there were conflicts.
- Refer to the Curriculum Framework, age 11 -12 for details.
